Re:12 Day Pre-General Report
(10/01/2016 ? 10/19/2016)

Jack Baisden
Senior Campaign Finance Analyst
Reports Analysis Division

Dear Mr. Baisden:

We are uncertain what your February 21 letter means by the ""24 hour reports"" it describes but does not identify. No 24 Hour Report was filed, and none could be filed as a matter of law, during the Pre-General reporting period. The Committee filed a single 48 Hour Report during this reporting period, on October 17, that timely and accurately disclosed independent expenditures occurring on October 15; Tell That Story and Hustle, Inc., which your letter identifies, were the payees. This report does correlate with the Pre-General Report's Schedule E, see pages 21 and 24, and with its Line 24.

It is true that Schedule E on the Pre-General Report lists some independent expenditures that were publicly disseminated during the subsequent 30 Day Post General reporting period, but your letter does not appear to refer to those. However, we are amending the Pre-General Report, primarily in order to move, from Schedule E to Schedule B, Line 21(b), the entries listing payments made during the Pre-General reporting period for independent expenditures that were later publicly disseminated in the Post-General reporting period.

Sincerely,

Sara Steffens
